Representation and Warranty

ALL MATERIALS AND INFORMATION ("MATERIALS") PROVIDED BY ASCI ARE PROVIDED "AS IS", AND ASCI MAKES NO REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. IN NO EVENT SHALL ASCI BE LIABLE FOR ANY LIABILITY WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE FOR ANY LOSSES OR DAMAGE ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT. IN NO EVENT SHALL ASCI BE LIABLE FOR ANY INDIRECT OR CONSEQUENTIAL LOSSES INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY LOSS OF PROFITS, CONTRACTS, PRODUCTION OR USE.

The Member acknowledges that because of the special nature of ASCI it is reasonable for ASCI to exclude liability as above and for the Member to take measures, including insurance where appropriate, to mitigate or prevent any potential losses that may arise (provided that such measures are not in breach of these Terms and Conditions).

If any third party makes or threatens to make any claim (or if, in the opinion of ASCI such a claim is likely) that the use by the Member of any Materials provided by ASCI infringes any intellectual property right of such third party, ASCI may, at its option, either secure the Member's right to continue using the Materials, make the Materials non-infringing or withdraw the Materials on one month's written notice whereupon the Member shall not be authorized to make any further use of the Materials. This sub-clause states the entire responsibility of ASCI concerning infringement of third-party intellectual property rights.

Membership agreements for other Members participating in the same tier of membership shall have substantially similar terms and conditions.

Renewal

The Membership Agreement shall automatically renew January every year, unless terminated in accordance with "Termination" below.

Termination

The Membership Agreement may be terminated:

- By either party giving to the other party sixty (60) days notice in writing.
- By ASCI on written notice to the Member if the Member has committed any material breach of the Membership Agreement and in the case of a breach capable of being remedied, has failed to remedy the breach, within 30 days after the receipt of a written request in writing from ASCI notifying the Member of such breach.
- By ASCI on written notice to the Member if the Member fails to pay any sum(s) due to ASCI under the Membership Agreement and such sum(s) remain unpaid for thirty (30) days after written notice from ASCI that such sum(s) have not been paid.
- For the avoidance of doubt, termination of the Membership Agreement for any reason shall not entitle the Member to any refund of the annual sum due under the Membership Agreement.

Antitrust Guidance

Certain types of activities conducted by industry participants may be subject to scrutiny under antitrust laws as being anti-competitive. In order to minimize exposure of the ASCI and its Members to antitrust liability, the ASCI and each Member agree to abide by the following guidelines when participating with, for or on behalf of the ASCI:

1. Neither the ASCI nor any of its committees shall be used for the purpose of bringing about or attempting to bring about any understanding or agreement, written or oral, formal or informal, express or implied, among and between competitors or between a supplier and its customer(s) with regard to prices, terms or conditions of sale, distribution, volume of production, territories, customers, credit terms or marketing practices.
2. The ASCI and its Members shall not discuss, communicate or engage in any other exchange between Members and/or Participants with regard to prices, pricing methods, production quotas or other limitations on either the timing, costs or volumes of production or sale, or allocation of territories or customers.
3. Neither the ASCI nor its Members and/or Participants shall engage in any activity or communication, other than unilateral action, that might be construed as an attempt to prevent any person or business entity from gaining access to any market or customer for goods and services, or to prevent any business entity from obtaining a supply of goods or services or otherwise purchasing goods or services freely in the market.
4. The qualifications for membership or participation in the ASCI are set forth in the ASCI Bylaws. No applicant for membership or participation, who otherwise meets the qualifications set forth therein, shall be rejected for any anti-competitive purpose or for the purpose of denying such applicant the benefits of membership or participation.
5. The ASCI shall not compel or coerce any Member and/or Participant into accepting or complying with any Adopted Specification.
6. Adherence to Adopted Specifications or sample implementations shall be voluntary on the part of the Members of the ASCI and shall in no way be compelled, directed or coerced by the ASCI, it being solely a voluntary decision on the part of the particular Member and/or Participant of the ASCI as to whether to adhere to or comply with any such Adopted Specifications or sample implementations.
7. Any Adopted Specifications or sample implementations shall be based solely and exclusively upon technical considerations and upon the merits of objective judgments and thorough procedures and shall in no way be based upon any effort, intention or purpose of any of its Members to reduce or eliminate competition in the sale, supply and furnishing of products and services.
8. If information, materials or reports of the ASCI for the use of the membership or participation is significant to third parties or others in the industry, then such information, material and reports will be made available by the ASCI to all such persons, on such reasonable terms and conditions as it may prescribe, in order to carry out its purposes.
9. To the extent that the purposes of the ASCI, as set forth in its Bylaws require, for the ASCI's purposes and objectives, joint research and development by two or more of its Members and/or Participants, or representatives thereof, any such joint research and development for the ASCI shall exclude the following activities:
 - the exchange of information among competitors relating to costs, sales, profitability, prices, marketing or distribution of any product, process, or service that is not reasonably required to conduct the research and development;
 - any agreement or any other conduct restricting, requiring, or otherwise involving the production or marketing by any Member and/or Participant of the ASCI of any product, process or service, other than the production or marketing of proprietary information developed through such joint research and development, such as patents and trade secrets; and
 - any agreement or any other conduct restricting or requiring the sale, licensing or sharing of inventions or developments not developed through such joint research and development, or restricting or requiring participation by any Member and/or Participant of the ASCI in other research and development activities, that is not reasonably required to prevent misappropriation of proprietary information contributed by any Member and/or Participant of the ASCI, or representative thereof, or of the results of such joint research and development.

Terms and Conditions

Modification

These Terms and Conditions may be modified by the inclusion by ASCI of additional requirements or terms on ninety (90) days written notice to the Member. In the event Member does not agree to such additional requirements, Member may resign from ASCI upon thirty (30) days written notice. Member shall not be entitled to a refund of membership fees pursuant to such resignation.

Governing Law

The Membership Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the state of North Carolina.

If any provision of the Membership Agreement is for any reason declared illegal in any country, all other provisions shall remain in full force and effect to the fullest extent permitted by such law.

For the avoidance of any doubt, any such finding of illegality in any country shall not affect the validity of any provisions of the Membership Agreement in other countries.

The parties hereto expressly agree that (i) each party is acting solely on its own behalf and in its own interest, (ii) none of the parties has an intent to operate under this Agreement as a partnership of any form whatsoever, and (iii) each of the parties hereby elects not to apply the provisions of Subchapter K of the Internal Revenue Code to this Agreement.
